For immediate release—Rohnert Park, CA, June 1, 2023 –KRCB 104.9FM transfer of radio show Jazz Connections to the PRX platform, enabling public radio stations nationwide to air one-hour segments of the popular jazz music program.

Program Description

Jazz Connections is a thematic radio show highlighting the music throughout its history, and in its many forms. Hosted by longtime jazz radio host and amateur jazz historian Larry Slater, Jazz Connections takes a unique perspective on this improvised music.

A show that aims to entertain as well as educate, Jazz Connections will expose your listeners to aspects of the music and its creators that is rarely heard today.

“Jazz Connections’ goal is to introduce jazz to novice audiences and provide the jazz audience with new and unique ways to explore this American Art Form,” says host Larry Slater.

Jazz Connections is available on PRX at no cost to stations across the country.

The show is currently available for download at PRX.org
